

Rubric: FOUND ART ASSEMBLAGE

Quality and meeting objectives	1) My objects are attached well to resemble an animal. 2) My design is thoroughly planned, including attaching pieces, painting, etc. 3) I spent my time wisely in class creating an Assembled Animal out of Found Objects.	1) My objects are somewhat attached to somewhat resemble an animal. 2) My design is somewhat planned, with some attention to attaching pieces, painting, etc. 3) I somewhat spent my time wisely in class creating an Assembled Animal out of Found Objects.	1) My objects are not attached well and does not resemble an animal. 2) My design is not thoroughly planned, and does not include attaching pieces, painting, etc. 3) I did not spend my time wisely in class creating an Assembled Animal out of Found Objects.
Originality (Creativity)	1) The execution of my animal is creative and thought of by me. 2) I used at least 3 found objects (only 1 from Mrs. Reynolds) as materials to make an animal in a creative way.	1) The execution of my animal is somewhat creative and thought of by me. 2) I used less than 3 found objects (only 1 from Mrs. Reynolds) as materials to make an animal in a creative way.	1) My execution of my animal is not creatively thought of by me. 2) I did not use 3 found objects (only 1 from Mrs. Reynolds) as materials to make an animal in a creative way.

