

Rubric: Illustrated Book

Demonstrating an understanding of the elements and principles of art	1) My character is correctly composed of all of the elements of art. 2) There are at least 10 pages with a Principle of Art clearly illustrated. 3) There is a glossary at the end of the book, including my main character with each Element of Art labeled. Each Principle of Art illustrated is listed with a description of the page it is on.	1) My character is somewhat composed of the elements of art. 2) There are less than 10 pages with a Principle of Art somewhat clearly illustrated. 3) There is a glossary at the end of the book, somewhat including my main character with each Element of Art labeled. Most Principles of Art are listed with a description of the page it is on.	1) My character is not composed of the elements of art. 2) There are not 10 pages with a Principle of Art illustrated. 3) There is not a glossary at the end of the book, including my main character with each Element of Art labeled. Not all of the Principles of Art are listed with a description of the page it is on.
Originality (Creativity) and Neatness	1) My book cover is thoughtfully planned and organized; one main object/theme is emphasized. 2) I illustrated my character and story neatly, my lines and coloring are clean. 3) My drawing(s) are creative and fill the paper appropriately; there are no large empty white spaces. 4) My book is titled and I am listed as the author and illustrator.	1) My book cover is somewhat planned and organized; one main object/theme is emphasized. 2) I illustrated my character and story somewhat neatly, my lines and coloring are kind of clean. 3) My drawing(s) are somewhat creative and nearly fill the paper appropriately; there are some large empty white spaces. 4) My book is not entirely titled and I am not listed as the author and illustrator.	1) My book cover is not planned and organized; one main object/theme is not emphasized. 2) I did not illustrate my character and story neatly, my lines and coloring are not clean. 3) My drawing(s) does not fill the paper appropriately; there are large empty white spaces. 4) My book is not titled and I am not listed as the author and illustrator.